Analysis and Finding

The accompanying bar graph show the percentage of reservation that are canceled and those that are not. It is obvious that are still a significant number of reservation that have not been canceled. There are still 37% of clients who canceled their reservation, which has a significant impact on the hotel's earnings.

Reservation status in different hotels

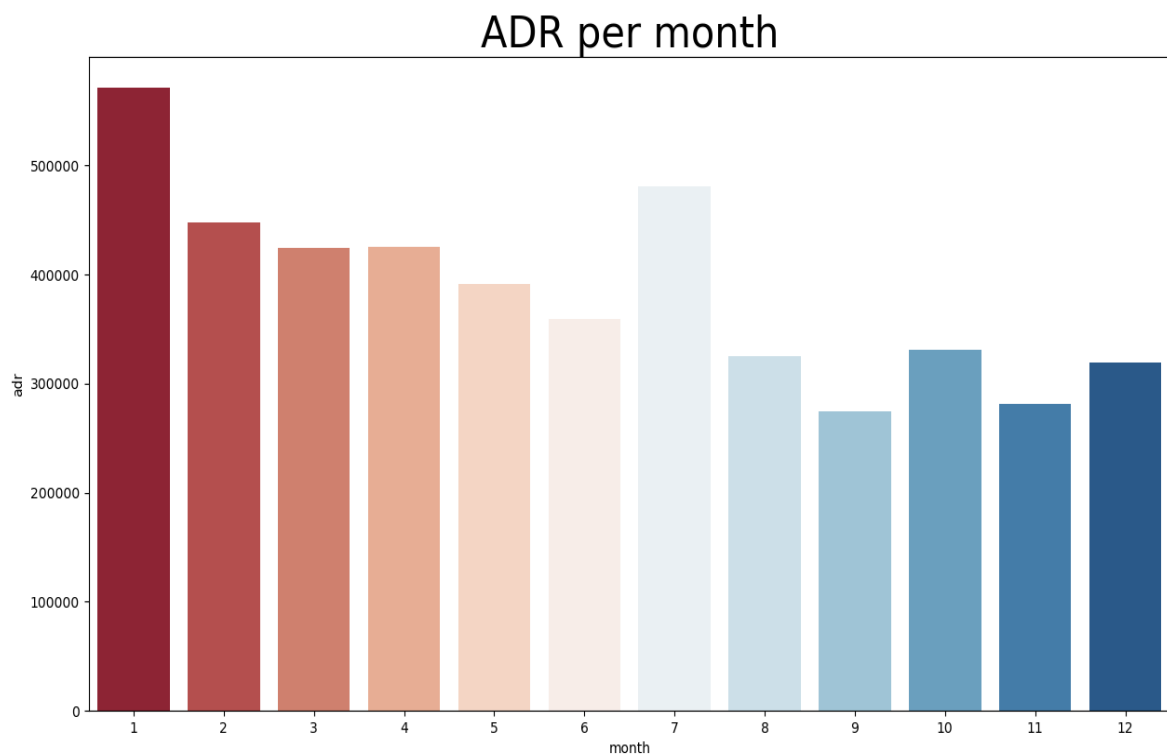

In comparison to resort hotels, city hotels have more booking. It's possible that resort hotels are more expensive than those in cities.

The line graph above show that , on certain days, the average daily rate for city hotel is less than of a resort hotel, and on the other days, it is even less. It goes without saying weekends and holidays may see a rise in resort hotel rates.

We have developed the grouped bar graph to analyze the months with the highest and lowest reservation levels according to reservation status. As can be seen, both the number of confirmed reservations and the number of canceled reservations are largest in the month of August. Whereas January is more with the most canceled reservations.

This bar graph demonstrates that cancellations are most common when prices are greatest and are least common when they are lowest. Therefore, the cost of the accommodation is solely responsible for the cancellation.

Now, let's see which country has the highest reservation canceled. The top country is Portugal with the highest number of cancellations.

Top 10 Countries with reservation canceled

Let's check the area from where guests are visiting the hotel's and making reservations. Is it coming from Direct or Groups, Online or Offline Travel Agents? Around 46% of the clients come from online travel agencies, whereas 27% come from groups. Only 4% of clients books hotels directly by visiting them and making reservations.

As seen in the graph, reservations are cancelled when the average daily rate is higher than when it is not canceled. It clearly proves all the above analysis , that the higher price leads to higher cancellations.

Suggestions

1. Cancellation rate rise as the price does. In order to prevent cancellations of reservations, hotels could work on their pricing strategies and try to lower the rates for specific hotels based on locations. They can also provide some discounts to the consumers.
2. In the months of January, hotels can start campaigns or marketing with the reasonable amount to increase their revenue as the cancellation is the highest in this months.
3. They can also increase the quality of their hotels and their services mainly in Portugal to reduce the cancellation rate.
